ACHIVEMENTS

Web Developer At The Age Of 15

Greetings... When I was in school at 8 standards I started web development at FC future coaching center but unfortunately, they only provide me with basic for 6 months then I started with online learning from Youtube ,Udemy .. etc I try to become self-learner now I am ALHAMDULILLAH when I was in college I completed full stack development for myself it was a big achievement because I am the first one in my house and my friend circle who started programming it was difficult for me but I do with my pure passion and intention Thankyou for reading

Started Blockchain Development At the age Of 18

Greetings... After hands-On experience in web development, I started blockchain development it was too difficult because this field has fewer tutorials on Youtube and other platforms then I go for paid tutorials on Udemy I learn Chunk by Chunk and now I completed 50 percent and am still in processing soon completed the full course I randomly scroll Upwork and see full stack development job and I applied they said you have to work as a Full Stack developer including Blockchain and I am easily said yes I can do then I do their many tasks but the Achievement was adding Wallet Connect integration on their website yeah at the age of 18 I do I am proud myself. Thank you for reading
